RISK CONSIDERATIONS

To ensure you understand whether this fund is suitable for you, please read the Key Investor Information which is available, along with the fund's Prospectus, from www.artemisfunds.com or www.fundinfo.com.

The fund is exposed to the following risks:

Market volatility risk	The value of the fund and any income from it can fall or rise because of movements in stockmarkets, currencies and interest rates, each of which can move irrationally and be affected unpredictably by diverse factors, including political and economic events.
Currency risk	The fund's assets may be priced in currencies other than the fund base currency. Changes in currency exchange rates can therefore affect the fund's value.
Bond liquidity risk	The fund holds bonds which could prove difficult to sell. As a result, the fund may have to lower the selling price, sell other investments or forego more appealing investment opportunities.
Credit risk	Investments in bonds are affected by interest rates, inflation and credit ratings. It is possible that bond issuers will not pay interest or return the capital. All of these events can reduce the value of bonds held by the fund.
Derivatives risk	The fund may invest in derivatives with the aim of profiting from falling ('shorting') as well as rising prices. Should the asset's value vary in an unexpected way, the fund value will reduce.
Charges from capital risk	Where charges are taken wholly or partly out of a fund's capital, distributable income may be increased at the expense of capital, which may constrain or erode capital growth.
Emerging markets risk	Compared to more established economies, investments in emerging markets may be subject to greater volatility due to differences in generally accepted accounting principles, less governed standards or from economic or political instability. Under certain market conditions assets may be difficult to sell.

PRICE AND YIELD(S)

Price	101.66p
Distribution yield	5.33%
Underlying yield	5.33%
Yield to worst	6.19%

Source: Artemis as at 30 November 2023.
The distribution yield reflects the amount that may be expected to be distributed over the next twelve months as a percentage of the mid-market unit price of the fund as at the date shown. It is based on a snapshot of the portfolio on that day. It does not include any preliminary charge and investors may be subject to tax on distributions. The underlying yield is calculated in the same way as the distribution yield but is net of charges and therefore lower than the distribution yield. The yield to worst is a portfolio characteristic that reflects the lowest potential yield based on the current price of securities within the portfolio under the assumption there are no defaults and adjusted for the yield of derivatives (where applicable), hedged into the share class currency. These yields are not indicators of the future performance of the fund.
